This latest technological upgrade has kitted the community group out for the increasing number of activities they host for the local area including dance classes for young and old; indoor bowls; meditation; bingo night and the longest-running community arts festival in Ireland, Clifden Community Arts Festival.

"We used Community Finance Ireland for Clifden Town Hall, a community venue social enterprise on two separate occasions and couldn't have been happier. Fast and professional throughout, especially Mary Nohilly who made the process very clear and friendly. Would certainly recommend and use again."
